ABOUT US

Founded in 1976, AMERSA's mission is to improve the health and well-being through leadership and advocacy in substance use education, research, clinical care and policy.

ABOUT THE EVENT

The Annual National Conference of AMERSA is the only multidisciplinary meeting for health professional educators, clinicians, and researchers in the field of addiction science. The conference attracts leaders and decision-makers in the fields of substance use disorder prevention, treatment, harm reduction, recovery and advocacy from government organizations (federal, state, local), universities, healthcare delivery organizations and more. With wide spheres of influence, AMERSA members are integral in disseminating knowledge and guiding the next generation of addiction healthcare professionals. Reach this unique gathering of professionals with an Exhibitor Table or Resource Table at the state of the art meeting facilities of the Radisson Blu in Chicago, IL.
